2. Communication from the Chair

The Speaker made the following communications;

1. Honorable Members,

On 25th September 2024, Hon. Abdirahman Mohamed Ali sought a statement from the Chair of the Committee on Lands. The Clerk's office duly communicated this request to the concerned CECM, who subsequently provided a response. The Committee on Lands met on 28th October 2024 to deliberate on the response and found it satisfactory.

However, during the plenary debate, the Presiding Speaker informed me that the House expressed dissatisfaction with the response, specifically noting the absence of ID numbers and the wards of the allocatees.

Therefore, I direct the CECM for Lands, Housing, Physical Planning, and Urban Development to resubmit the response, ensuring that the missing details ID numbers and wards of the allocatees are included.

You are so guided.

Thank you.

2. Honorable Members,

I bring to your attention a matter of concern regarding the recent conduct of one of our Honorable Members.

In a recent forum, it was noted that an Honorable Member referred to a fellow member as an "idiot." This language is highly inappropriate, falling short of the respect and decorum expected in this Assembly. Such behavior is incompatible with the values of mutual respect and professionalism that we, as representatives of the people of Garissa County, are committed to upholding.

In line with our Standing Orders and Code of Conduct, which emphasize the importance of maintaining respectful and constructive discourse, I am referring this matter to the Powers and Privileges Committee for further review. The Committee will examine the incident thoroughly and recommend appropriate action, as this House has a responsibility to hold each of its members to the highest standard of conduct.

Honorable Members, let this serve as a reminder of the importance of using respectful language when engaging with each other, regardless of any differences in views. As leaders, our words and actions set an example for the public we represent, and it is essential that we uphold the integrity of our Assembly by fostering an environment of civility and respect.

The Powers and Privileges Committee is hereby directed to address this matter with urgency and report back to the House with their findings and recommendations.

You are so guided.

Thank you.
